

Deia MARKOVA

Head of Trade Commodity Finance,
Societe Generale

Sustainability Ambassador and Head of Trade Commodity Finance at Societe Generale Corporate and Investment Banking (SGCIB), Switzerland, Deia Markova is an investment banking professional with over 20 years of experience. She originates, structures and executes complex debt and equity transactions for her network of corporates, business owners, NPOs, MDBs and institutional investors.

Throughout her career, Markova has gained a global understanding of debt financing and capital markets, focusing on emerging markets and innovative solutions. She has developed and promoted new financing solutions at Societe Generale Switzerland, aimed at achieving the SDGs, using impact-based business models and digitalization to reduce the cost-to-impact thus providing value for all stakeholders.

Deia Markova has been in charge of the Trade Commodity Finance activity in Switzerland since 2020 and she is still active in the implementation of Societe Generale's sustainability agenda. She holds a Master of Science in Finance from Panthéon-Assas University Paris and a Certificate of Advanced Studies in International Business Law from the University of St. Gallen.